PREFACE.

Methinks I hear the cry—Away, away!
The green have won the honour of the day."
—JUVENAL, Sat. XI., 195-6.

THE early history of Riders' Colours is very obscure. No doubt some distinguishing mark, or badge, or cap was used even in the earliest days of horse-racing, but no records seem to have been preserved of a nature to throw any light upon what the colours were, or what was the practice in use in those days. In fact, down to the period when the horses of Her Majesty Queen Anne were sent to compete for the Gold Cups at York in 1712, 1713, and 1714, no information of a definite character can be obtained; nor, indeed, for many years after Queen Anne's death in 1714, although careful search has been made, and every known publication bearing upon the subject has been diligently hunted up.

Seymour and other painters represented race-horses with jockeys mounted, and wearing colours, but these rest mainly upon tradition, and are unreliable from the want of evidence to identify them. Much that is valuable and interesting for reference has been therefore lost, and although some of the noblemen and gentlemen mentioned in the following lists were possibly in the habit from their earliest connection with the Turf of using the colours declared at the Jockey Club meeting of 4th October 1762, the terms of the resolution then passed throw some considerable doubt upon the point, although the resolution itself is very instructive, as showing the light in which the matter was viewed by that body on this occasion of the first public recognition of Riders' Colours.

This took place at the Second October Meeting at Newmarket in the aforesaid year, and the resolution was as follows :—

"For the greater convenience of distinguishing the horses in running, and also for the prevention of disputes arising from not knowing the colours of each rider, the under-mentioned gentlemen have come to the resolution and agreement of having the colours annexed to the following names worn by their respective riders :—

H.R.H. the Duke of Cumberland ...	Purple
His Grace the Duke of Grafton	Sky blue
His Grace the Duke of Devonshire ...	Straw colour
His Grace the Duke of Northumberland	Yellow
His Grace the Duke of Kingston ...	Crimson
His Grace the Duke of Ancaster ...	Buff
His Grace the Duke of Bridgwater ...	Garter blue
The Most Noble the Marquis of Rockingham	Green
The Right Hon. the Earl of Waldegrave	Deep red
The Right Hon. the Earl of Orford ...	Purple and white
The Right Hon. the Earl of March ...	White
The Right Hon. the Earl of Gower ...	Blue
The Right Hon. Viscount Bolingbroke ...	Black
The Right Hon. Lord Grosvenor ...	Orange
Sir John Moore, Bart.	Darkest green
Sir Jas. Lowther, Bart.	Orange
Mr. R. Vernon	White
Hon. Mr. Greville	Brown trimmed with yellow
Mr. Jenison Shafto	Pink

"The Stewards therefore hope, in the name of the Jockey Club, that the above-named gentlemen will take care that the riders be provided with dresses accordingly."[1]

Nothing is known as to the influence exercised by this resolution upon the officials of the other race meetings in the country. It does not appear, however, to have had much weight with the members of the Jockey Club themselves, for on the 10th February 1771 a further resolution was passed at a Jockey Club meeting held at the Star and Garter Tavern, Pall Mall, London, and adopted by the Noblemen and gentlemen who were present, with the following declarations of their colours :—

[1] Originally a black velvet cap, like that of a huntsman, was the only one used by the riders, and was more or less associated with the colours enumerated in this and the following list, but at a little later period the cap was altered, varying in colour, and has continued so down to present date.

His Grace the Duke of Kingston ...	Crimson
His Grace the Duke of Ancaster ...	Very light buff
His Grace the Duke of Grafton ...	Dark blue, black cap
His Grace the Duke of Northumberland	Gold-colour, cap the same
The Most Noble the Marquis of Rockingham	Green, black cap
The Right Hon. Viscount Bolingbroke	Black
The Right Hon. Lord Carlisle ...	Scarlet and grey stripes, cap the same
The Right Hon. Lord Grosvenor	Orange, black cap
The Right Hon. Lord Farnham ...	Sky blue
The Right Hon. Lord Ossory ...	Pea-green, cap the same
Sir T. C. Bunbury, Bart.	Pink and white stripe, black cap
The Right Hon. C. J. Fox	Green and white stripe, cap the same
Mr. Thos. Foley	Green and white stripe, cap the same
Mr. Pigott	Pompadour, cap the same
Mr. P. Blake[1]	Black and white, cap the same
Mr. C. Blake	Grey and white stripe
Mr. Burlton	Yellow, cap the same
Mr. Ogilvy	Harlequin
Mr. R. Vernon	White, black cap
Mr. P. Wentworth	White satin

From the above date the Riders' Colours began to be placed upon the Jockey Club record, and the growth of the list is interesting as showing the extent of the Turf's development down to modern dates. In 1762 we find 19 registrations; in 1862 no less than 590 names of owners who have declared their colours are on record. The resolution adopted by the members of the Jockey Club, it would seem, was by no means obligatory, for there are many persons whose Racing Colours, whether members or not, it would be extremely interesting to know, but which are unavoidably omitted, for, as far as can be gathered, they were never registered, and no public record of them exists.

Owing probably to a corresponding difficulty, painters as well as publishers have sometimes fallen into error both as to their representations and publications. Some few instances—out of many far too numerous to mention—which have come under my own observation, will explain my meaning. For example, in a painting of Eclipse, by J. N. Sartorius, in my possession, small panel with a distant view of the old stand at Newmarket, the jockey, probably John Oakley, is represented in a blue jacket and black cap, instead of Colonel O'Kelly's colours, which were crimson and black cap. This famous horse, from the time he was purchased by Colonel O'Kelly from Mr. Wildman, was never out of the former's possession. Diamond is another example. In a print published in 1799—usually when found in good condition a beautiful example of the old colour-printing—the jockey appears in a light-blue jacket, white cap, whereas the colours of Mr. Cookson, his owner, were at the time purple body, straw cap. Again, in the print published of Antonio, the declared winner of the disputed St. Leger in 1819, owned by Mr. J. Ferguson, the jockey, Thos. Nicholson, is represented in scarlet. This horse was sold the same year to Mr. J. Clifton for £1000, and should be associated with the proper colours of Mr. J. Ferguson, viz., blue, yellow stripe. It was not till 1823 that Mr. Ferguson changed his colours to scarlet, long after the horse had left his possession. Dangerous, too, winner of the Derby in 1833, in a print published at the same date, is represented with Chapple on his back in a scarlet jacket, black cap, whereas Mr. Sadler's colours (his owner) were white body, scarlet sleeves, black cap. Elis, winner of the St. Leger in 1836, owned by the Earl of Lichfield, is represented with John B. Day in the saddle, in blue body, red sleeves, blue cap, instead of the proper colours, black body, red sleeves, black cap. Cossack, winner of the Derby in 1847, in a painting by F. C. Turner, has Sim Templeman on his back, dressed in scarlet body, orange sleeves and cap, instead of orange body and cap, scarlet sleeves.

These examples show that at all times considerable difficulty has been experienced, from one cause or another, in ascertaining the colours actually worn by the riders; and as no effort seems ever to have been made to place before the public the full particulars, and to show, as far as possible, the changes and alterations which took place from time to time, it is hoped that this publication, alphabetically arranged, will supply a want often felt, and will be the means of drawing more attention to an interesting feature in racing seemingly overlooked.

It may possibly be of interest to state that the following information comes direct from Mr. W. Chiffney, son of the owner of Priam, and coming from such a genuine source, is of sufficient authority to be preserved as an interesting record of the past. It was while Priam was a yearling owned by Sir John Shelley, Bart., who bred him, that Mr. W. Chiffney became aware of the excellent promise the colt showed, and feeling assured that if he asked the price direct either for himself or the Marquis of Cleveland, the answer would be such that a deal would be out of the question. However, he spoke to the wily Mr. John Dilly upon the subject, and left the matter with him, as being more likely to secure the colt. In Sir John Shelley's yearling sale which took place at Newmarket in June 1828, the colt, then unbroken, was included with others, and after being run up by the stable he belonged to, was knocked down by Mr. Tattersall for 1500 gs. to Mr. J. Dilly, and transferred to Mr. W. Chiffney at the same price. Immediately after, Mr. Dilly desired to have a share in the colt, but upon the condition that Mr. Chiffney retained all rights of management and freedom of action in every particular, Mr. Dilly was allowed to purchase a leg. Upon this, Mr. Samuel Day, who lived with Mr. Dilly at Newmarket, and who afterwards rode Priam in the Derby of 1830, suggested, as he had some spare money, he would buy another leg, which purchase was accordingly arranged. Mr.

Samuel Chiffney stepped in and desired also to purchase a leg, which was sold him; while the other leg, body, and head Mr. Chiffney reserved for himself. With this partnership, Priam, who did not start as a two-year-old, won his first race, the then important Riddlesworth Stakes, named after the seat of Mr. Thomas Thornhill in Norfolk, at Newmarket in 1830.

Being backward, and not thoroughly trained, his preparation for the Derby was soon commenced, when after a long gallop (presumably not the eight mile sweat occasionally indulged in) some time before that event Mr. Samuel Day desired to be off his bargain, which Mr. W. Chiffney repurchased. Mr. Dilly, too, was anxious to relieve himself of his liability, but the consideration of a big book upon the Derby may have had something to do with that. However, Mr. W. Chiffney bought him out, and Mr. Samuel Chiffney too sold his leg to his uncle, so that when Priam won the Derby he was solely the property of Mr. William Chiffney.

A dispute arose some time after as to the ownership of Priam between the Honourable G. H. A. Chichester and Mr. Josh Anderson, the latter laying the former a very heavy bet that Priam did not wholly belong to Mr. Chiffney upon the Derby Day of 1830.

Mr. William Chiffney tells me that he had to decide that bet, which the Honourable G. H. A. Chichester (an old friend of his) won, with the information I have communicated, and thus ended what might have proved a curious case of ownership in the event of a dispute.

In an old sporting Calendar published in 1823, the colours of Mr. W. Chiffney are stated to be white, scarlet sleeves, white cap. In 1825 and 1827 they remain the same, and in 1831, in another Calendar, no alteration is made.

The Druid, in "Post and Paddock," says the colours of the Chiffney family were dark green, black cap, and this is the only instance in print I have found of their being thus recorded. Here lay the difficulty of determining which authority was the correct one. Mr. J. F. Herring, I knew, assigned the green jacket, black cap, to Priam in his paintings, of which several were executed, but I am told there is not one good likeness of the horse amongst them—or possibly a painter's happy hit. The best portrait of Priam by that distinguished artist is upon a snuff-box, which, Mr. W. Chiffney tells me, was given to his father by Mr. J. F. Herring, and is now in the possession of Mr. Beales. Mr. Chiffney used the pink and black stripe, black cap, of the Marquis of Cleveland occasionally, from his interest in some of his Lordship's horses, which he trained; and from a similar interest in some of Mr. T. Thornhill's horses, who was also a patron of the stable, used the white, scarlet sleeves, white cap, of that gentleman, which will account for the colours being placed as his on the record in the old Calendars. Possibly Mr. W. Chiffney would have continued using these colours of Mr. T. Thornhill's had not that gentleman, upon one occasion, taken exception to the frequency his colours were being used, adding that he would not stand it any longer, for, said he, "Chiffney, you must have a colour." Chiffney replied that he did not want a colour, and could do very well without one. Upon a further forcible remonstrance from Mr. Thornhill, Chiffney suggested that he should use the old brown trial-jacket, to which Mr. Thornhill replied that he would not have that. "However," said Mr. Thornhill, "as you have got a black cap, Chiffney, you must have a colour; and as you like something miserable and sombre, I will send you a dark green jacket, and with the black cap you will get along very well."

Priam won the Derby in 1830, and was ridden by Samuel Day in the memorable green jacket and black cap, and was afterwards sold to the Earl of Chesterfield for 3500 gs.—not 3000 gs., as has been before recorded.

Mr. John Kent informs me that after Ascot in 1831 Priam was sent with Carthusian from Ascot to Goodwood direct, and while being prepared for the Cup, which he won, he rode him in several of his gallops, being then associated with the Duke of Richmond's racing stud.

After Mr. W. Chiffney's death Mr. G. Osbaldeston used the same green jacket and black cap which had been presented to him, afterwards changing it to a dark green velvet jacket.

Thus on the eve of publication, through Mr. W. Chiffney's kindness, I have been enabled to clear up an important query, which for the want of proof, not otherwise to be got, would have been left open to doubt, owing to the scanty information furnished in respect to the old colours.

In an Appendix is given a tabulated list of the Derby, Oaks, and St. Leger winners from the foundation of each race, showing the names of the owners, years, winners, jockeys, sires, and dams, and, as far as it has been possible to collect them, the correct colours of the owners. This is perhaps the first time such an exhaustive list has been published in extenso, but it is very much to be regretted that it cannot, after great research and inquiry, be made fully complete.

The additional information will perhaps be read with interest, relating as it does to Newmarket and York.

In conclusion, my special thanks are due to the Honourable F. C. Lawley, Mr. John Kent of Felpham, Sussex, and Mr. H. Smurthwaite, for the valuable assistance they have ever been ready to give me, and to Mr. Richard Johnson, of York, and other gentlemen, who, by loan of race-cards and other information, have enabled me to add matters of interest while engaged in compiling my book.

* An old picture by Spencer of a horse with jockey mounted, in red jacket and black cap, in my possession I have lately identified as Bajazet, owned by the above nobleman in 1750, from a volume called "Pedigree Horses," published in sheets by John Cheney, and sold by Heber about 1756. These colours the Earl of March, as Duke of Queensberry, adopted in 1780, and this clearly points to one change of colours at least, previous to the declaration of 1762.

THE ROAD MATCH, performed by Mr. COOPER THORNHILL, Master of the Bell Inn, Stilton, Hunts, April 29th, 1745, to ride three times between Stilton and London.

This match was made for a considerable sum of money, and many hundreds, if not thousands, were depending upon it. Mr. Cooper Thornhill was allowed as many horses as he pleased and to perform the task in 15 hours. The time he actually took to do the distance was 11 hrs., 33 min., 52 sec., as below, which was 3 hrs., 26 min., and 80 sec. under the time allowed him.

It is seventy-one miles from Shoreditch church to a milestone a little beyond Mr. Thornhill's house at Stilton.

The total distance being near 213 miles.

ACCOUNT of the CARRIAGE MATCH made by the EARLS OF MARCH and EGLINTON with THEOBALD TAAFFE, Esq., and ANDREW SPROWLE, Esq., for One Thousand guineas.

The conditions of the articles were to get a carriage with four running wheels, and a person in or upon it, drawn by four horses nineteen miles in one hour. Their lordships were to give two months' notice what week it should be done in, and had the liberty to choose any one day in that week. This was performed on Newmarket Heath on 29th day of August 1750, in fifty-three minutes and twenty-seven seconds, as appeared by three stop-watches the umpires held, which did not vary one second.

The horses were all properly trained for racing—the two leaders, including riders, saddles, and harness, carried about eight stone each, and the wheel-horses about seven stone each. The machine, with Lord March's postillion fixed thereon, weighed twenty-four stone.

Tawney (late Mr. Greville's), who was afterwards sold for 100 gs., the near-leader, was ridden by Mr. Wm. Everett, Mr. Panton's groom, who had the conducting the rate to go at. The off-leader, Roderick Random (late Mr. Stamford's), sold afterwards for 90 gs.; the near-wheel horse, Chance (late the Duke of Hamilton's), and the off-wheel horse, Single Peeper, sold afterwards for 50 gs., in place of Little Dan, who fell ill, were ridden by three boys. Bolsters were worn by the horses to preserve their shoulders. A groom, dressed in crimson velvet, rode before to clear the way. The postillion was dressed in a white satin waistcoat, black velvet cap, and red stockings. Mr. Everett and the three boys that rode the horses were in blue satin waistcoats, buckskin breeches, white silk stockings, and black velvet caps. The traces, by an ingenious contrivance, ran into boxes with springs to prevent the traces from getting under the horses' legs if any hung back. A rope went from the further end of the carriage to the pole, and was brought back under it to keep the pole steady. By the side of each wheel there were tin cases filled with oil, dropping on the axle-tree, to prevent its firing. It started about seven o'clock in the morning, near the Six-mile House, and ran between the Warren and the Rubbing Houses, came through at the Ditch called the Running Gap, then turned to the right and ran three times round a corded piece of ground of four miles, and back to the place it started from.

The match was performed before a great number of spectators, without any person attempting to ride with it except Mr. George Tuting and Lord March's groom, who waited on them to assist in case of an accident.

The original painting was by Mr. Seymour, with portraits from the life, and was sold at Messrs. Foster's, Pall Mall, in June 1889.

A DESCRIPTION of the MATCH against TIME performed by JENISON SHAFTO, Esq., at Newmarket, on Wednesday, June 27th, 1759.

There were posts erected three miles, viz., from between the Well Gap and the King's Gap, from thence down to the Running Gap, from thence to the Pens, and from the Pens to the second mile-post, so close to the Lands, quite to the Roads

* He was afterwards sold and sent to America. In 1773 he was repurchased and brought back to England by Edward Leedes, Esq., North Milford, Yorks, and in 1774 covered at 10 gs.

"I do certify that Wildair is the sire of my mare, Angelica, that won the 4 yr. old plate at Philadelphia in 1770, and won the Subscription at the same place ; also of my horse, Bashaw, that won the Macaroni 100 gs. at our Newmarket in 1772, though lame ; also of my gelding, Popper, that won the 4 yr. old plate at Mowlas Hook the same year; and of Mr. Sim's Wildair, that has won four or five plates in Maryland last year and the year before ; and also of my Slamerkin, that won the 4 yr. old purse last year at our Newmarket and Philadelphia ; and of my mare, Sultana, that won the Give and Take plate at the last place ; and of Mr. Rutge's horse, Macaroni, that won the 4 yr. old plate last year at Mowlas Hook. Everything of his get that have started have won, except two or three out of very bad mares. "JAMES D'LANCEY.

"NEW YORK, Jany. 5th, 1774.

"N.B.—My Bashaw won the £50 weight for age this year at our Newmarket, distancing all the rest ; and my mare, Slamerkin, also won the £100 weight for age at Philadelphia, and these are all that have started this year.

"JAMES D'LANCEY.

"NEW YORK, Augt. 7th, 1774."

† Atlas beat Jack o' Newbury at Newmarket in 1758, after the latter had won the King's Plates at Guildford, Canterbury, and Lewes.

8.	Jessamy, by Hutton's Spot, started from the third mile-post at the Turn of the Lands, went once round, and stopped at the Turn of the Lands	3	miles.

15.	Adolphus started a second time from the Turn of the Lands, went all round to the quarter-of-a-mile post beyond the third mile-post to the Turn of the Lands .	3¼	,,
	Total . .	50¼

The umpires were Randall Peck, Esq.; —— Nelthorpe, Esq.; Mr. John Rowning, Watchmaker, Newmarket; and Mr. Thomas Stamford, Keeper of Running Horses.

The distance was accomplished in 1 hr., 49 min., 17 sec., Mr. Shafto starting after four o'clock in the morning, and to the great admiration of the nobility and gentry assembled, he went through the whole without the least fatigue. It was said that Mr. Jenison Shafto netted over £14,000 by this match.

Wildair, Juggler, Forester, Jessamy, and Hambleton were Mr. Shafto's own property; Merry Batchelor was the property of Mr. John Singleton; Rover belonged to Mr. Benjamin Rogers; Adolphus belonged to Mr. Nicholas Jones; Jack of Newbury belonged to Earl Waldegrave; and Prince T'Quassaw to His Grace the Duke of Kingston.

YORK, 1760.—Thursday, 21st August. The GREAT SUBSCRIPTION STAKES of £255, with £50 added by the CITY of YORK, for six-years-old and aged Horses, &c.—Six years old, 8 st. 7 lbs., and aged, 9 st.—Four miles.

Mr. J. B. Warren's c. h., Careless, aged, by Regulus out of Silvertail (9 st.)—John Tow. 1

Duke of Devonshire's b. h., Atlas,† aged, by Babram (9 st.)—Match 'em Timms 2

5 to 1 on Atlas.

* This horse was beaten by Careless at York in 1758 in two heats of four miles, each carrying 10 stone 7 lbs., for a prize value £100!

† Dr. Johnson, when on a visit to Chatsworth, was shown Atlas, and expressed himself so well pleased that he is reported to have said that he would rather own him than any other of the Duke's possessions.

This was perhaps one of the most sporting events of the period, and both performers were justly celebrated as the crack horses of their day. Their extraordinary merits were related in the strain of an old English ballad which has been thought worthy of being produced. It may be added that at Huntingdon in 1758, and at Newmarket in 1759 (Jockey Club Plate), Atlas had previously beaten Careless in both these races. This was the first time Atlas was beaten.

Silvertail, the dam of Careless, can be traced back to the days of Charles II., through Whimsey and a mare belonging to Sir W. Burdet called Vixen. The latter was out of a Barb mare and got by the Hemsley Turk. The said Barb mare was the dam of Dodsworth, which she brought into England unfoaled in the time of Charles II. She was "stiled a royal mare, and was sold by the Stud Master about, or soon after, the said King's demise, for 40 gs. at twenty years old when in foal of Vixen."

SURE SUCH A PAIR WERE NEVER SEEN.

COME all ye noble sportsmen that love to show fair play,
I'll tell you of a valiant match that was run at York one day
Between Mr. Warren's Careless, which I tell o'er and o'er,
And the Duke of Devonshire's Atlas, that never was beat before,
That never was beat before.

On the twenty-first of August they met at York to run,
But hark! and I will tell you, and now began the fun;
The sportsmen they would boldly lay twenty to five or more
All on his Grace's Atlas, that never was beat before,
That never was beat before.

John Tow was dressed in red,* and he's a nice young fellow,
And so is Match 'em Timms, and he was dressed in yellow,
Come, clear away and let us start; Careless gets on the score,
For he'll beat his Grace's Atlas, that never was beat before,
That never was beat before.

And when he'd run the first two miles, finding his Careless strong,
He drew his head unto his chest, and let Atlas pass along;

* In an original picture of this match, signed F. Sartorius, fecit, in my possession, the rider of Careless is dressed in a blue jacket, black cap; the rider of Atlas wearing the proper colours of the Duke of Devonshire. Matthew Simpson is described in the Ballad as the rider of Atlas—but this is an error. Match 'em Timms was the rider, and at the time was the principal jockey in the Duke's stable. At York in 1759, Careless won the Great Subscription Stakes—four miles—in eight minutes and eight seconds.

He let Atlas pass along, which I tell you o'er and o'er,
For he'll beat his Grace's Atlas, that never was beat before,
That never was beat before.

But when they came to the distance-post, so I have heard folks say,
Oh! Careless then he did spring out and easily won that day,
And easily won the day, which many did behold,
Which made the noted gamblers say, "Adzooks! we've lost our gold;
Adzooks! we've lost our gold."

Come all ye noble sportsmen, both high and low in station,
You'll agree that Careless is the best horse in the nation;
He ran so clean and clever, so well did play his part,
That he'll beat all the famous horses that ever against him start,
That ever against him start.

DESCRIPTION of Mr. John Woodcock's riding 2900 miles in twenty-nine successive days at Newmarket.

This match was made between Mr. Shafto and Mr. Meynel for 2000 guineas; Mr. Shafto to get a person to ride 100 miles a day (on any one horse each day), for twenty-nine days together—to have any number of horses not exceeding twenty-nine. Mr. Woodcock started on the 4th May 1761, at one o'clock in the morning, and finished on 1st June about six o'clock in the evening.

The horses he rode were as follows:—

1.	Mr. Shafto's bay horse	1 day
2.	Lord Chedworth's chesnut mare	3 ,,
3.	Captain Winnyard's chesnut horse	2 ,,
4.	Mr. Thistlethwaite's grey horse	3 ,,
5.	Mr. Wildman's black mare	3 ,,
6.	Mr. Woodcock's bay mare	2 ,,
7	Mr. Scott's bay mare	2 ,,
8.	Lord Montfort's bay horse	2 ,,
9.	Mr. Surrecolt's chesnut horse	1 ,,
10.	Mr. Shafto's roan horse	2 ,,
11.	Mr. Culcraft's chesnut horse	1 ,,
12.	Mr. Rudd's chesnut mare	1 ,,
13.	Mr. Welch's bay horse	3 ,,
14.	Mr. Major's bay mare	3 ,,
		29 days

Mr. Major's mare did not begin one day till ten o'clock; Mr. Woodcock beginning with a horse called Quidnunc, and went about sixty miles by nine o'clock and then tired. Afterwards he took Mr. Major's mare to perform the 100 miles in the remaining part of that day, which he did, and finished it about eleven o'clock at night, which was the latest time during the whole performance, so that he rode 160 miles in that day. The course he rode was from Hare Park to the Ditch, which made three miles, and from thence went a three-mile course round the flat on that side of the Ditch next Newmarket. There were posts and lamps fixed round his courses, he choosing to start very early in the mornings to avoid the heat of the days.

The following Advertisements appeared in 1766, and the information will perhaps be read with interest, especially as it relates to Arabian Horses imported into this country, their history being seldom described in such a graphic manner:—

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the fine Grey Arabian Horse, late the Lord Viscount Barrington's, and which has been lately seen at the Riding House in Mayfair, being now purchased of his Lordship by Mr. Gibson, will cover at 10 gs. a Mare at Brands, nr. Kilburn, Middlesex.

This Horse, which is near 15 hands high, extremely beautiful, remarkably strong, and in perfect health, was purchased at Yemine in Arabia Fœlix, of the Immaum or King of Sinna, for £400 sterling, was brought from Yemine down the Red Sea to Bombay, and from thence to England, on board the Earl of Elgin, East Indiaman, as upon inquiry will most undoubtedly appear, so that, considering how very few (if any Horses) that are called Arabians have such authentic proofs of their being really so, the distance of the place from whence he came, famous in Arabia for the best breed of Horses, and the Length and Hazard of the Voyage, it may be presumed no man could undertake to bring a Horse of Equal Merit from thence for less than £2000.

Brands is about five miles from London, and within two of Hampstead, where is great Plenty of very fine Pasturage of Every Kind and all manner of the best Conveniences for Mares and Colts.

MR. BELL'S GREY ARABIAN, so much esteemed by all who have seen him, will Cover this season at 10 gs. and 5s. to the Groom, at Mr. Carver's Farm at Goulder's Green, near Barnet, Hampstead, and Hendon, in Middlesex, where the greatest care will be taken of all Mares sent to be covered; the best Corn, Hay, and Grass will be provided at a reasonable rate.

This most beautiful and valuable Horse is one of the purest and most esteemed breed amongst the Arabs that has ever yet been brought to the Western parts of Europe, having been purchased at the Distance of thirty days' journey from St. John D'Acre, the nearest Sea-Port to the Deserts of Arabia, by Philip John, an Armenian, sent by Mr. Bell, about 4 years ago, on Purpose, and with an unlimited Commission to buy the best and most genuine bred Horse he could find in all Arabia, at any Price; and who, as well from his great skill in Horses, as is well known to many Noblemen of the Highest Rank here, as from his perfect acquaintance with the Language and Manners of the Arabs, was enabled to execute the Commission Mr. Bell had given him in a manner no European could have done. In consequence whereof, by his address and by means of valuable presents he made to Beny Suckr, the principal Chief and Commander of all the different Tribes of Arabs of those Deserts, and to the Sheiks, other great men there, he not only got permission to travel into any part of the Deserts and to take his choice of all the most esteemed Horses there, but even obtained the Favour of purchasing the Horse, now Mr. Bell's, out of Beny Suckr's own stud, with an undoubted assurance and Testimonial (now in Mr. Bell's hands) signed by all the principal officers and chief men of the Country, of this Horse being of the Jelsy Blood, the most Valued Breed in all Arabia and in every respect a true and perfect Arab horse. Mr. Bell hopes he may therefore, without presumption, repeat that this is the most perfect, if not the first and only Horse of the Genuine and most Valuable Arab Breed that has ever before been brought to England, and at the same time from the great original Price paid for him, the Value of the Presents made to the Arabs, the great expense incurred by having a guard of ten men, that Beny Suckr sent to attend him during a journey of thirty days, through the Deserts to St. John D'Acre, his being taken from thence by Land to Aleppo, from Aleppo to England by sea, with the charges of the Person who purchased him during his Journies and Voyages, for upwards of Three Years, that he is also the most costly Arabian Horse that has yet been seen here. Mr. Bell therefore flatters himself that his having procured this estimable Horse at so very great Expense, of Trouble, and Money, for the service of the Noblemen and Gentlemen Breeders, will intitle him to their Favour and to the continuance of that encouragement they were pleased to give him last season.

A SONG written about 1776, wherein and whereby the world is proved to be like a Newmarket Race-horse and the men on it are Jockeys.

SURE life's but a race where each man runs his best,
If distanced or thrown a bad match is the jest;
Each strives to be foremost and get the first in,
For he is but a bubble who don't wish to win.

A statesman starts eager to get to the post,
Where he who can jockey his rival gains most;
Each crosses and jostles to get the whip-hand,
And he is the best rider who wins the most land.

Great men at preferment and pensions do catch,
And he who wins both makes a very good match;
To keep his seat steady, his aim to be rich,
Whips hard to take lead and be first at the Ditch.

The world may be properly called the Round Course,
Where sweetness and management often beats force;
A match that's made well here makes Noblemen smile,
When a feather beats weight over the Abingdon Mile.

Sly lawyers but jockey us out of our course,
Whenever they nonsuit for blunders and flaws;
And doctors, mistaking the method to save,
Do oftentimes jostle men into the grave.

The parson who gives us a very bad wife
Had much better jostle us out of our life,
For that wretched groom who does marry a flirt
Is beaten quite hollow and flung in the dirt.

The deep one or flat plays catch as catch can,
And he who outschemes us is held the best man;
From palaces down to the poor pedlar's stall,
The place-man and pensioner are jockeys all.

Ye spirited mortals who love manly sport,
To Newmarket Meeting but yearly resort,
Well mounted you'll see, or else view from the stand,
Mares, horses, and riders, the best in the land.

Since the globular earth but resembles a race,
When mankind all start to get fortune's embrace,
In Europe no place like Newmarket for play,
Haste away to Newmarket! Hooray, boys, Hooray!

NEWMARKET CRAVEN MEETING.—March 25th, 1799.

MATCH 3000 gs., h. ft. Beacon Course.

Sir H. T. Vane's Hambletonian, by King Fergus, out of Grey Highflyer, 6 years, 8 st. 3 lbs.—F. Buckle 1
Mr. Cookson's Diamond, by Highflyer, dam by Match 'em, 6 years, 8 st.—D. Fitzpatrick 2

The betting before the race was nearly even; 6 to 4 had been laid in favour of Hambletonian, but the odds at starting were 11 to 8 and 5 to 4 on Hambletonian.

At three-quarters past one o'clock both horses started in as fine a condition as possible. Francis Buckle (Lord Grosvenor's rider), who rode Hambletonian, permitted Dennis Fitzpatrick, who rode Diamond, to take the lead at starting, to prevent any accident of his horse running out of the course. After the horses had run about a mile and a quarter Hambletonian took the lead, and continued it to the winning-post. Across the Flat they ran at an amazing speed, Hambletonian leading his adversary about two lengths, after which they continued so closely together that doubts were entertained by the bettors on both sides, but it was universally allowed that Hambletonian won by about half a length. His last stride in passing the winning-post was supposed to be seven yards. He appeared to be more spurred than Diamond, but not at all whipped. This, it is said, arose from his being a lurching horse, and consequently always laying closely to his adversary. It is affirmed that when he exerts his might he seems to lengthen his joints beyond their natural extent, and that if he had been impelled by a greater necessity, his wonderful powers would have still increased the astonishment of his beholders! The Beacon Course measures four miles, one furlong, and 138 yards, and the race was run in seven minutes and a quarter. It is supposed that between two and three hundred thousand pounds were depending upon the result of this race, and in addition to the original stake of 3000 gs., the owners had a bye-bet of 800 gs.

The match between Hambletonian and Diamond drew together the greatest concourse of people ever seen at Newmarket. The company not only occupied every bed to be procured in the place, but Cambridge and every town and village within twelve or fifteen miles were also thronged with visitors. Stabling was much more scarce than the accommodation within doors.

In the above match it is acknowledged that Buckle displayed the most consummate skill against his formidable competitor, Dennis Fitzpatrick, and literally won the match by manœuvring between the Ditch and the Turn of the Lands, so as to gain considerably upon his antagonist ere they pushed up the Hill, where the running of the compact little horse would have been an overmatch for him. And as a part of the momentous events of that day, Buckle related the following anecdote. Sir H. T. Vane had betted heavily on Hambletonian's winning, and in proportion to the heavy sums in his Book, his interest in the event had deepened, and his nerves became proportionally unsteady. In the deepest apprehension, and just as the horses had arrived at the starting-post, he approached his jockey with his last orders (which, by-the-bye, Buckle chose to disobey), and to inquire once more his opinion as to the result of the race. It was then that the cool and unruffled demeanour of the man of nerve, confident in his own skill and resources, reassured the Baronet, who exclaimed, as his own fevered hand grasped that of Buckle, "By G——, but I would give the whole stake to be half as calm as you."

MRS. THORNTON'S MATCHES.

See the course throng'd with gazers, and lots of "old Rakes,"
To view the "beautiful Heroine" start for the stakes;
With handkerchiefs waving, the spectators all clap,
Half-dressed like a jockey, with her whip and her cap,
With spirits like fire, behold her mount the gay prad,
And the cheers and the smiles make her heart light and glad;
And Mrs. Thornton's "the favourite" through thick and through thin,
And the swells and the jockeys all bet she'll win.

Catch Weights.

Never was there witnessed such an assemblage of people as were drawn together on the above occasion, since the year 1766, when H.R.H. Duke of York honoured York Races, and in consequence a numerous assemblage of nobility and of the first ranks of fashion in the kingdom, which with the racing attracted the greatest number of people of all descriptions almost ever then known. At that period there were 569 subscribers to the Assembly Rooms, the largest number either before or since that time. The carriages upon the ground exceded the year 1739, when there were thirty coaches with six horses during the time of running.

Indeed, expectation was raised to the highest pitch from the novelty of Mrs. Thornton's match. Thousands from every part of the surrounding country thronged to the ground—nearly 100,000. In order to keep the course as clear as possible, additional people were employed, and, much to the credit of the 6th Light Dragoons, a party of them also were on the ground on horseback for the like purpose, and which unquestionably helped to prevent any accident.

About four o'clock Mrs. Thornton appeared on the ground, in high spirits, her horse led by Colonel Thornton and Mr. H. Boynton. Afterwards Mr. Flint appeared. They started a little past four o'clock. The lady took the lead for upwards of three miles in a most masterly style. When within a mile from home her horse fell lame. Mr. Flint then took the lead, which he kept. He rode in very good style, and paid every attention to the lady.* Her horse, however, had much the shorter stride of the two. Mrs. Thornton used every exertion :—

"Push on, my dear lady ; pray don't the whip stint,
To beat such as you must have the heart of a Flint ;"

* The following Letter from Mrs. Thornton was published the following week respecting her Match with Mr. Flint :—

"Mr. Editor,—Having read in your paper that Mr. Flint paid me every attention that could be shown on the occasion of the race, I request you will submit the following elements of politeness to the gentlemen of the Turf, for them to sanction or reject upon any future match of this kind to take place :—

"Element (1). Mr. Baker, who kindly offered to ride round with me, on account of the dangerous accident on the Wednesday before, from my saddle twisting round, was positively and peremptorily refused this permission.

but finding it impossible to win the race, out of humanity to her horse, she pulled up, in a sportsmanlike style, when within about two distances from the winning-post.

At the commencement of the running, bets were 5 and 6 to 4 on the petticoat. In running the first three miles 7 to 4 and 2 to 1 in her favour. At starting, and in running the two first miles, every one on the ground thought she would win. In running the last mile the odds were greatly in favour of Mr. Flint.

Never, surely, did a woman ride in better style. It was very difficult to say whether her horsemanship or her dress and beauty were most admired. The toute ensemble was unique. She gained the admiration of all, and much disappointment was felt by the immense crowd of spectators at her not winning her match.

Mrs. Thornton's colours were leopard-coloured body with blue sleeves, the rest buff, and a blue cap. Mr. Flint rode in his own colours—white. The race was run in 9 minutes and 59 seconds. Mrs. Thornton's horse was nearly twenty years of age.

"Element (2). At the starting-post the most distant species of common courtesy was studiously avoided; and I received a sort of word of command from Mr. Flint as thus—'Keep that side, Ma'am.'

"For a morning's ride this might be complimentary, but it was here depriving me of the whip-hand. I did not expect Mr. Flint to shake hands with me—that, I understand, being the common prelude to boxing.

"Element (3). When my horse broke down in the terrible way he did, all the course must have witnessed the very handsome manner in which Mr. Flint brought me in—i.e., left me out, by distancing me as much as he possibly could. If these should be received as precedents, the art of riding against ladies will be made most completely easy.

"Challenge.—After all this, I challenge Mr. Flint to ride the same match, in all its terms, over the same course, next year—his horse, Brown Thornville, against any one he may choose to select out of three horses I shall hunt this season.

"ALICIA THORNTON.

"THORNVILLE ROYAL, September 1st, 1804."

YORK, August 24th, 1805.—MATCH for a GOLD CUP, value 700 gs.—Two miles.

Col. Thornton's Louisa, by Pegasus, out of Nelly—Mrs. Thornton . . 1
Mr. Bloomfield's Allegro, by Pegasus, out of Allegrantis dam—F. Buckle * 2

This match, in which Mrs. Thornton rode against Mr. F. Buckle, the jockey, well known at Newmarket and other places of sport as a rider of the first celebrity, occasioned the highest interest, and perhaps justly so, as this was the first occasion a lady had ever displayed her riding powers against such a master of the art of riding as the renowned Mr. F. Buckle. Mrs. Thornton, dressed for the contest in a purple cap and waistcoat, nankeen coloured skirts, purple shoes and embroidered stockings. She was in every way in health and spirits, and seemed eager for the decision of the race. Mr. Buckle was dressed in a blue cap, with blue jacket and white sleeves. Mrs. Thornton carried 9 st. 6 lbs., Mr. Buckle 13 st. 6 lbs. At half-past three o'clock they started, and immediately Mrs. Thornton took the lead, which she kept for some time. Mr. Buckle then put in trial his jockeyship, and passed the petticoat and kept the lead for a few lengths, when Mrs. Thornton's, we may truly say, horsemanship pushed forwards, and came in in a style far superior to anything of the kind we ever witnessed, winning her race by half a neck. The manner of Mrs. Thornton's riding is certainly of the first description; indeed her close seat and perfect management of her horse, her bold and steady jockeyship on one of the most crowded courses we have for a long time seen, elicited the highest admiration, and on her winning she was hailed with the most deafening shouts and congratulations.

YORK, August 24th, 1805.—MATCH for 2000 gs., h. ft., four hhds. of Coti Roti and 600 gs. pp. bet by Mrs. THORNTON.—Four miles.

Col. Thornton's ch. h., Mr. Mills or Clausum Frigit, by Otho—
Mrs. Thornton W. O.

Mr. Bloomfield declining to ride.

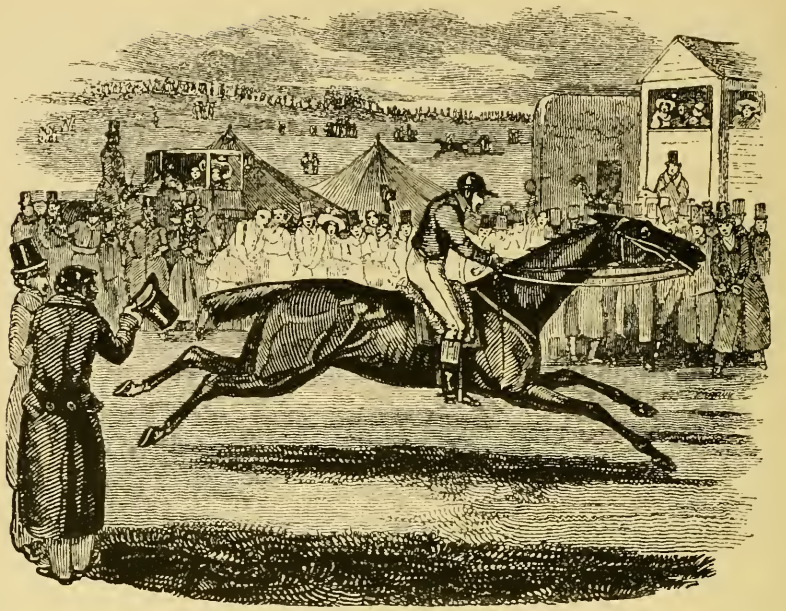
It was stated on good authority that it was much against Mrs. Thornton's wish to ride over the course for this match had she not been obliged to do so, agreeably to the conditions of the articles with Mr Bloomfield.

As Mrs. Thornton was exercising her mare on Thursday morning (22nd August 1805), she again displayed her skill as an horsewoman, by extricating herself from the most perilous situation, for on coming in at full speed the mare bolted opposite the Grand Stand, and made towards the railing, and before Mrs. Thornton could manage the mare one of her fore feet was literally under the railing, over which she must have been inevitably precipitated, had she not turned the mare, which she effected, notwithstanding the shock sustained, which had nearly thrown her from the saddle. It was allowed by every one present that few jockeys could have extricated themselves in a similar predicament. The groom who rode against her was nearly thrown off also.

SMART PERFORMANCES.

Wednesday, April 11th, 1792, the Lord Viscount Barnard (the present Earl of Darlington (1806), afterwards the Duke of Cleveland), after the conclusion of the great Oatlands Stakes (won by Mr. Bullock's Toby), rode from the Dukes' Stand on Newmarket Heath to Bolton House, London, in four hours and forty minutes, using only three horses on the journey of sixty miles.

On Friday, May 23rd, 1806, after the Oaks Stakes had been run for on Epsom Downs, Colonel Mellish mounted his horse and rode to Westminster (a distance of sixteen miles), where he remained on business with a gentleman for forty minutes, and drank a bottle of champagne, after which he took his horse and rode three miles beyond Epsom Downs, to Mr. Ladbroke's, within two hours and fifty minutes of the time he first left the course.



The ACCOUNT of the Extraordinary MATCH by G. OSBALDESTON, Esq.

This match was performed on Saturday, Nov. 5th, 1831, on the Newmarket Round Course,* for a bet of 1000 gs.; Colonel Charitte betting Mr. Osbaldeston that he did not perform the distance on horseback of 200 miles in 10 hours, the number of horses to be unlimited. At the appointed hour, seven o'clock in the morning, Mr. Osbaldeston appeared with his umpire, Mr. T. Thelluson, and Colonel Charitte with Mr. Bowater on behalf of the Colonel, at the Dutch Stand, and the preliminaries being soon settled between the parties appointed to watch the proceedings of the match, the watches of the umpires being set and locked up, Mr. Osbaldeston prepared to mount, dressed in a purple silk jacket, doeskins, and black velvet cap. It is true that he wore a broad riding belt with whalebone round his waist, which proved of essential service, more especially as he advanced towards the conclusion of the match. Various bye-bets were made to a great amount—one party betting £1000 to £100 that Mr. Osbaldeston did not accomplish the task in 9 hours. The distance was performed in gallant style in 8 hours and 42 minutes, including the time for mounting, dismounting, and refreshments. The greater part of the day was very uncomfortable, being very stormy and attended

* Mr. Osbaldeston did not ride the exact Round Course, which is some furlongs under 4 miles, but by going outside of it, getting into the Beacon, about Choke Jade, touching on the Bunbury Mile, and coming home close to the Ditch, he made it a 4-mile course.

Mr. Osbaldeston at the close of the match gave a plate of £50 to be run for by the above horses. The plate was won by the Smolensko colt, three years old, 7 st. 10 lbs. (Chapple), the property of Lord Lowther. Donegani was second, ridden by Pat Conolly.

* Tranby, belonging to Mr. J. Gully, it will be seen, did the sixteen miles in 33 minutes 15 seconds. At the Craven Meeting at Newmarket in the same year, Tranby was beaten by Priam in the Craven Stakes. He was afterwards sold and sent to America.

† This horse nearly brought the match to an abrupt conclusion, for while going at a slashing pace he made a flounder, and Mr. Osbaldeston, standing in the stirrups, shot over his head. This untoward circumstance caused Ikey to bolt; certainly, as a writer puts it, there was something very ominous in the name for bolting.

† Jerry was afterwards sold by Mr. Gascoigne to Lord Kelburne for 2000 guineas.
